

Bank Sohar Supports GCC Stamp Exhibition In Oman

Bank Sohar has sponsored the 15th GCC Gulf Postal Stamps Exhibition held at Qurum City Centre as part of the bank's ongoing strategy of supporting community events of every nature across the Sultanate.

The Bank sponsored the production of a number of promotional materials to help in the promotion of an event that attracted thousands of philatelists to the City Centre to enjoy the exhibition that showcases historic and modern stamps from many years that have been issued by the postal authorities of every GCC country.

Bank Sohar's DGM for Retail Banking Khalfan Al Taley said: "We were delighted to be able to give our support to this interesting and informative exhibition at Qurum City Centre. As a Bank we are keen to support a wide range of interesting activities across the Sultanate that can help to inform and educate the general public.

"This year we were especially pleased to support this exhibition as it was being held over National Day when a new stamp will be issued that features the image of His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said."

The event was the latest commitment by the Bank to support a wide range of community-focused initiatives that are held across the Sultanate as the bank continues its policy of engaging directly with residents all over Oman.

Bank Sohar is Oman's youngest and fastest growing bank. In a little over two years since its inception it has become the fourth largest bank in Oman in terms of lending and is continuing to grow and attract more customers through its range of innovative banking products and promotions.
