

Bank Sohar Supports Indian Ballet Event – The Glory of Karnataka

Bank Sohar was the lead presenting sponsor for a spectacular evening of Indian culture with the presentation of a ballet called “Karnataka Vaibhava (The Glory of Karnataka)”.

The ballet was being staged by the Indian Social Club, Karnataka Wing in Muscat at Oman Auditorium of Al Bustan Palace Hotel with H.E. Anil Wadhwa, the Indian Ambassador to the Sultanate of Oman, as the Chief Guest on 19th of November 2009.

Bank Sohar has a long and close relationship with the Indian Social Club and has supported cultural events in the past that are aimed at reaching the Non Resident Indian (NRI) population of Oman.

The Bank’s DGM for Retail Banking, Khalfan Al Taley said: “As a Bank we are fully committed to helping to support artistic & cultural events here in the Sultanate and have enjoyed a long and close relationship with the Indian Social Club.

“NRIs make up an increasing number of our customers for the bank both in Muscat and across the Sultanate and we are delighted to be able to help support such worthy cultural such as the Karnataka Vaibhava.”

The show was performed by the well know troupe of Indian artists called Prabharth Kaivadaru which has performed more than 1000 shows around the world and the Muscat performance featured 15 highly talented dancers.

Bank Sohar has an arrangement with Axis Bank in India to provide a number of customized banking and financial services to NRIs in Muscat which include NRE and NRO accounts, Indian credit cards, home loans in India, investments in Indian and international mutual funds etc.
