

Bank Sohar Distributes Ramadan Essentials to Deserving Families in Muscat

Bank Sohar staff visited some areas in Muscat to personally deliver food / ration packets and other essentials for Ramadan, to deserving families in the town, as part of the annual efforts to help those in need.

Every year members of staff from Bank Sohar get together to raise money through a “Bake Sale” and other voluntary contributions that generates fund to buy essential food commodities to be distributed to one area of the country.

The DGM - Human Resources and Corporate Support, Ms. Munira Abdulnabi Macki explained: “As part of the Bank’s ongoing commitment to helping the communities where we work, our staff has once again given their time and efforts to help raise money and personally distribute essential food to needy families at this special time of the year.

“The time and effort our staff have given demonstrates the caring attitude of our employees and their willingness to give something back to the community.”

The distribution of the food was undertaken with the assistance of Daar Al Ata’a.
