

Bank Sohar Supports Ramadan Festival

Bank Sohar has supported this year's three-day Ramadan Festival held at the Omani Women's Association in Shatti Al Qurum.

The Bank participated in days of the Festival and on the third day joined and celebrated "Qaranqasho" with the children – a special event during the mid of Ramadan when young children go around from house to house for candy and sweets.

In Support of "Qaranqasho" Bank Sohar had provided gifts for orphans children aged 4-7 who came to the Festival from a local orphanage school to celebrate this special day in Ramadan.

The festival exhibition had special shops for clothes and accessories to help people prepare for Eid and there were also coffee shops and places selling traditional Omani sweets.

Khalfan Al Taley, DGM Retail Banking at Bank Sohar, said: "We are delighted to support this festival and in particular to help the orphans specially during this occasion when Muslims are fasting during Ramadan. We at Bank Sohar are committed to helping all communities across the Sultanate. Ramadan Kareem and Eid Muabrak."
