

Bank Sohar networks at Salalah

An evening with customers in different parts of the country is a tradition that has taken firm roots at Bank Sohar. The Bank invited some of their privilege customers, VIP's, potential customers, businessmen and well-wishers in the Dhofar Region to an informal evening with dinner and entertainment organised exclusively for them at the Crowne Plaza Resort, Salalah.

Bank Sohar's Committee of Hosts for the evening included Khalfan Rashid Al Tal'ey, DGM, Retail Banking, Khamis Al Rahbi, Chief Senior Manager Branches, Mazin Mahmood Ahmed Al-Raisi Head of Marketing & Publicity, and Amur Said Al Amri - Branch Manager Salalah. Guests were greeted by the Branch Manager. In his welcome note to the special invitees Amur Said Al Amri emphasized that these periodic gatherings in different regions of the country were intended to create and nurture a channel of communication between prominent customers and business leaders in different regions with the Senior Management of the Bank who are located in the capital area. "We value what you have to communicate and your feedback from the arena of business is a core resource for us." He thanked the guests for responding to the Bank's invitation and for being present at the function.

The social gathering in Salalah was a good opportunity to inform those present about the half-year results that the Bank has recently announced and which has enabled the Bank to commence an encouraging new phase.
