

Bank Sohar Sponsors Sayyid Abbas Invitational Golf Tournament

Dr. Mohammed Abdulaziz Kalmoor, CEO Bank Sohar presided as Guest of Honour and distributed prizes to the winners of the Sayyid Abbas Invitational Golf Tournament. The two day winter tournament was organised by the Ghallah Wentworth Golf Club recently.

While handing over the prizes to the winners of the tournament, Dr. Kalmoor mentioned that it gave him immense pleasure to be at a Golf Club that has been a part of the modern history of Oman and has contributed in large measure to the sport in the country. “Ghallah Wentworth Golf Club has promoted golf in the country for four decades. The Club had a modest start but thanks to the sporting spirit of the Club, many Omani Golfers have acquired skills in the game and represented the country in tournaments in the region. During the last four years, the Club has also contributed to the efforts to take golf to the youth of Oman. The club joined the Ministry of Sports’ Summer of Sports Programme to make lessons in golf available to young persons in Oman keen to take to the game.”

Dr. Kalmoor greeted the players and winners of the tournament and encouraged them to carry on the fine sporting traditions of the Ghallah Wentworth Golf Club in their quest for excellence in golf.
