

OFA Appreciates Bank Sohar Effort

A few days ago Bank Sohar announced their intent to provide support for the Oman national football team when they meet Kuwait in the Asian Cup Qualifiers on March 3. With this objective, Bank Sohar made a bulk purchase of tickets for the Qualifier Cup match. The Bank also informed customers that these tickets would be available to them free-of-charge on a 'first-come first-take basis'.

“Bank Sohar took the first initiative to purchase tickets for this crucial match,” said Salah Abdullah al Farsi, General Secretary, Oman Football Association. “Bank Sohar’s initiative spurred many other corporates to come to the support of the Oman National team with similar bulk purchase of tickets. We thank Bank Sohar for their prompt support and their participation.”

Bank Sohar has since been distributing the complimentary tickets through their branch network to their customers keen to support the home team. “Customers have been availing of the opportunity and collecting their ticket from our branches,” said Khalfan Rashid Al Tal’ey DGM – Retail Banking, Bank Sohar. He added that on the day of the match there would be two enclosures of the stands representing the Bank Sohar family present there to cheer the Omani team. “We know our presence will make all the difference to the morale of the team.” Al Tal’ey advised all customers holding Bank Sohar complimentary tickets to be at the stadium at least two hours before the match to avail of the enclosure reserved for Bank Sohar gate No. 27. The Bank has reserved two enclosures exclusively for their customers. Customers are advised to inform the Security Personnel at the gates that they are Bank Sohar customers so that they may be directed to these reserved areas.

