

Bank Sohar Competes in Ramadan Football Tournament

Company Participates in Annual Event Organized by Oman Refineries and Petrochemicals Company

Bank Sohar is competing in the annual Ramadan football tournament that is organized by the Oman Refineries and Petrochemicals Company for private sector companies from across the Sultanate.

A total of 24 teams, including one representing Bank Sohar, are participating in the event that takes place every year during the holy Month of Ramadan.

“We are delighted to participate in this Ramadan football tournament and encourage sporting activities during this special time of the year. This tournament has also created a spirit of friendly competition among the participant’s teams” said Munira Abdul Nabi Macki, DGM – Human Resource & Corporate Support.

The team is already enjoying the tournament and the challenge of competing against staff from other private sector companies. Till date, Bank Sohar team has been successful in reaching Round 16 – Best 16 teams out of 24 teams- in the tournament and Moosa Al Dugheshy from the team is the lead scorer.

Taking part in this event is part of its ongoing policy of supporting worthwhile sporting events during the Holy Month of Ramadan.
