

Bank Sohar champions contemporary theatre in Salalah

Bank Sohar has sponsored an Arabic language play called “Private Clinic” that was staged by Dhofar Al Majd InfoTech during the Salalah Tourism Festival. The social comedy has been written by Bader Nader Al Tamimi and directed by Adi Omar Al Shanfari and was performed over several nights.

The support from the Bank is part of its ongoing commitment to helping the development of young artistic Omani talent.

Salalah is one of 12 locations across Oman where the Bank has branches as the Sultanate’s youngest bank continues to rapidly grow its customer base through the introduction of innovative products and services.

