

Bank Sohar sponsors Santoor Recital

Last week-end, Bank Sohar joined a group of Hindustani Classical Music enthusiasts when they gathered at the Crowne Plaza – Muscat to listen to the well-known santoor maestro Padma Shri Pandit Satish Vyas.

“Our presence at the santoor recital on a Friday morning is indicative of our interest in the things that interest our different customers,” said Khalfan Rashid Al Taley – DGM Retail Banking “Those who were present at the recital were discerning people of different nationalities who appreciated the fine points of a very unique instrument. It is people like these who also appreciate quality banking. At this music event, we had an opportunity to inform the elite gathering about Bank Sohar’s Al Mumayaz Savings Scheme 2010, the monthly prizes and the single largest prize in Oman being offered as a part of it.”

We are proud of all our customers and are committed to support all the communities in Oman. “Bank Sohar is a bank of each individual and we believe that we cannot be the best without the support of all our customers in general” Added Al Taley.
