

Bank Sohar's Al Mumayaz Prize Draw held at Sur

Bank Sohar conducted the first prize draw for the Al Mumayaz Savings Scheme 2010 at the Sur Plaza Hotel, Sur. The Bank's Scheme 2010 is packed with several prizes every month, Big prizes every quarter and is topped with the offer of the Single Largest Prize in Oman for the year. The Sur prize draw was for the month of February and was conducted in the presence of an invited gathering of prominent citizens of Sur and customers of the Bank's Sur Branch.

In advance of the draw, officials of the Bank provided an overview of the Al Mumayaz Savings Scheme 2010. The main highlights of the 2010 prize calendar and the eligibility criteria were explained to the guests. This was followed by the inaugural prize draw – forty prizes of RO 400 each with two assured winners from each branch and one prize of RO 40000 to one winner were conducted

“We took the opportunity of bringing the introductory draw under the 2010 Al Mumayaz Savings Scheme to Sur to give our customers here a real feel of the winning of the savings prizes during the year,” said Khalfan Rashid Al Taley – DGM Retail Banking. He added that the Scheme's first quarter prize draw would take place at the end of March quarter and customers could participate in this by maintaining the required minimum balances in their savings accounts.

“We invited our customers and the prominent citizens of Sur to witness the prize draw for our new Savings Scheme and also to spend an evening with us. A prize draw creates its own excitement and an exclusive evening with our customers adds an extra special dimension. The gathering in Sur is the first of many such events that will take place in different parts of the country, as we go along with our campaign this year”
